Food For thought...

For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct." Jesus taught that we should consider those in need: "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid. But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just" (Luke 14:12-14).

The application for us today, is the same as it was for Jesus. His actions were focused on the work given to Him to preach the gospel. In the course of His ministry He was able to help, to heal, to even feed and to give hope! However, Jesus understood that His role was to point people to God's Kingdom: "Jesus answered them and said, 'Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled. Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set His seal on Him.'" (John 6:26-27). Are your actions ones of humility that give hope, compassion, and assistance to those in need in this turbulent world? Do you pray for love and mercy for your enemies? Do you do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return? Are you a kingdom builder following in the footsteps of Christ trusting in His Father's will? In our humanness these can be difficult questions. Ones to pick apart and meditate on this coming week.

St. John's Tidbits

The Utica Saturday Globe said of Father Tiernan: "He is scholarly in taste, and able conversationalist, a broad church man, who has the respect of non Catholics and the devotion of his parishioners in a remarkable degree. Catholicity in this most northern corner of Oneida County has a valiant champion in St. John's pastor." Father Tiernan for years wrote much in defense and explanation of the Catholic faith in the secular press, He often used the "non de plume, "Ezra Winters," a fine old Presbyterian gentleman. He was called a whole Catholic Truth Society in himself.
